BOYS' SHOES

That Will Do Their Duty

WE'RE after the Boys' Shoe trade with good shoes at reasonable prices. Not trying to give you shoes at a price—but to give you shoes that will wear, and at the lowest price they can be sold for.

We've had some special shoes built for that boy of yours. They're worth the money; and after your boy has given them a trial you'll say they are worth more.

Test us on this Boy Shoe proposition.

THE GRIM REAPER

Mrs. Abbie McKim, aged 86 years, the venerable mother of former Postmaster Chas. A. McKim, died at the home of her son, corner Livingston and Ash streets, last Saturday evening, following an illness which dated from last April.

Abbie LaBoiteaux was born in Mt. Healthy, Hamilton county, September 30, 1829. Her father was William LaBoiteaux, one of the pioneer residents identified in many ways with Hamilton county's earlier advancement. The family was of French origin, coming to this country at the time the French Huguenots fled to escape persecution from the Edict of Nantes. Of her family, two half sisters and a half brother are residents of Newcastle, Ind., and vicinity. In 1852 she married Dr. James D. McKim and during their married life he was a practitioner in Erie county. Their family consisted of three children, a daughter who died in infancy; Mrs. Ida M. Luce of Canton, Ohio, and Charles A. McKim of this city. Four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren also survive, descendants of Mrs. Luce.

Mrs. McKim came to this city twelve years ago last month from Castalia. She speedily identified herself with the social life of the neighborhood and was one of the youngest and most active personage in the happy little circle. Her church affiliations were with the Universalists and its broad tenets outlined her unlimited charity and sympathy and love for humanity. A charter crusader, her active public life was identified with the W. C. T. U. movement from its birth. She was one of the early advocates of suffrage and her keenest disappointment had to do with the fact she did not live to see Ohio dry, nor the ballot not given to women. Her voice and her efforts and her means were freely expended to advance these causes. Brief funeral services were held by Rev. Luce of the M. E. Church at the McKim home last Monday evening. Tuesday morning the remains were shipped to Cincinnati over the Northern, where interment was made in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Albert Dunwoody died at the home of his brother-in-law Geo. McLaughlin, East Race street, Saturday morning at 7:30 o'clock after a several months illness from tuberculosis. With his family he came to Mr. McLaughlin's home about two months ago. He was born near Celina, O., 38 years ago and was the son of Geo. and Sarah Dunwoody, both of whom are dead. His wife, Mrs. Grace Dunwoody and her daughter, Norma, survive. A brother George Dunwoody and a sister whose whereabouts is not known also remain. Funeral services will be held at the McLaughlin residence Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Aspy of Eaton, officiating. Burial will be made at Green Park cemetery—Portland Ind., Review.

Ned, the twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Creeden, West Livingston street, died last Saturday morning, shortly after eight o'clock, following an illness of tuberculosis which dated since last May.

Deceased was born in this city, but had lived at Springfield the greater part of his life. His parents, and one sister, Miss Ida Bell, an employee of the ready-to-wear department of the Remakus & Beckman store, survive him.

Richard Hemmelgarn, familiarly known as "Uncle Dick", who lived with his son, William, near Burkettville, died on Sunday, October 31st, of complications attributed to old age. He was in excellent health up to a few days before when he began to fail and on account of his advanced age he could not survive.

The deceased died was born in Germany coming to this country at the age of six years and settling in this county just north of the Darke county line. He has resided there his entire life and has seen this country and particularly this section of the state grow. At his death he was 84 years of age.

"Uncle Dick" was one of those many sturdy Germans who aided in the development of this part of the state. He cleared farms and was successful as a farmer, having in his life time acquired enough of this world's goods to leave to each of his nine surviving children a farm.

He was not only a man that was well to do but also a good, kind man, one whom all respected. "We will miss Uncle Dick" was the expression of all who knew him, when apprised of his death.

The wife died twenty-six years ago. Seven sons and two daughters survive, two sons and two daughters, having preceded him in death.

The funeral was held Monday forenoon at nine o'clock at the Burkettville Catholic church and interment was made in the Burkettville cemetery.

George W. Rogers, a pioneer re-surveyer at his home west of Rockford, following a gradual decline of health for several years. Mr. Rogers celebrated his 76 birthday last Sunday, and was born and raised on the farm where he died. He is survived by his daughters, Miss Nellie and Mrs. Allen Fisher and son Frank Rogers and other relatives and friends. The funeral will be held from the home Thursday morning, 10 o'clock.—Rockford Press.

NOTICE TO PRINTERS.

Notice is hereby given that the Deputy State Supervisors of Elections in and for Mercer County, Ohio, will hold, on Saturday, the 9th day of October, 1915, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., to the lowest responsible bidder, the contract for printing and furnishing 68,798 official ballots; 12,925 of which are for the submission of township and precinct general election, and 24,605 ballots for the election of Justices of the Peace in certain townships, 12,425 official ballots for the submission of amendments to the constitution, and 12,925 official ballots for laws that may be submitted for an initiative and referendum vote. The various precincts and the number of ballots required for each will be furnished by the Clerk upon application.

Ballots for each precinct are to be bound in one book—each, 1 c; one book for general election ballots, one for Justices of the Peace, one for amendments, and one for school board. School board and Justices of the Peace ballots must be printed in duplicate. Said ballots are to be prepared for use at the coming general election to be held on Tuesday, November 2, 1915, and in all respects in compliance with requirements of the law. Sealed proposals, accompanied by a cash bond for the faithful performance of the contract, will be received at the office of the clerk, in the Court House, Celina, Ohio, until 1:30 p. m. of the said 9th day of October, 1915. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Blank books furnished by the Clerk of the Board. Bidders must bid separately for regular ballots, Justices of the Peace ballots, amendment ballots and school board ballots. Facsimile signature plates will be furnished by the Board.

By order of the Board of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections in and for Mercer County, Ohio.

J. M. HALE, Chief.

E. E. GARDNER, Clerk.

Dated September 29th, 1915.

COULDN'T CUT SLICE OF BREAD

Terrible State of Weakness Experienced By Ipswich Lady. Cardui Made Her Strong.

Ipswich, S. D.—Mrs. Henry Royle, of this place, says: "I suffered for near 10 years, with womanly trouble. Nothing seemed to help me until I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. It made me well and strong. Before I commenced to take Cardui, I could not stand on my feet."

I was so weak, I could not cut a slice of bread. Now, I can stand all day, and can do most of my work. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. I have been feeling fine ever since I began to take it. Cardui was recommended to me by a friend, and I will gladly tell my friends of it. If Cardui will relieve and cure such a stubborn and long-standing trouble as that of Mrs. Royle, then it is only reasonable to believe it will quickly and surely help you, too.

Cardui is the ideal general tonic for women. It has been found to improve the appetite and build up the entire womanly constitution. You can always depend on Cardui, for it has helped more than a million weak women in the past 50 years, who suffered from troubles so common to their sex. Try Cardui. It will help you.
